

TROOP 778

Cabin Campout

Swift Lodge, S-F Scout Ranch March 19 – 21, 2010

Meet at Stanton at 5:45 PM on Friday, depart by 6:15.
Return to Stanton at 12:30 PM on Sunday.

Cost: $15.00 for food, due at the March 10 Troop Meeting.

Scouts should eat dinner Friday before arrival at Stanton. Snacks will be provided for Friday and Saturday night. Meals include breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday and breakfast on Sunday.

The PLC will plan the menu. The leaders will purchase the food and prepare the meals. Patrol assignments will include clean-up for each meal, cleaning up the cabin after each meal, and outdoor cleanup.

The cabin has a kitchen, dining area, main room, indoor restrooms, and two sleeping areas containing bunks. Each bunk has a mattress. Sleeping pads are not required, and will not be transported from Stanton. All adults will sleep in the main rooms. Cots are strongly suggested for adults.

Scouts should bring a sleeping bag, plate, cup and utensils. Bring boots for outdoor activities and sneakers for indoors. Plan for cold, wet weather and dress accordingly.

The Buddy System will be in effect the entire weekend.

Each Patrol is allowed to bring one board game and one card game. Chess, checkers and backgammon will be provided by the leaders. Game times will be established by the PLC and enforced.

Portions of Saturday will be devoted to skills for everyone and working with First Year Scouts on setting up, using, and taking down tents.

A religious service will be held Sunday morning. Outdoor activities for Friday night, Saturday and Sunday morning will be planned by the PLC.

All Scouts are encouraged to relax and enjoy a camping weekend without cooking responsibilities.

A training meeting for all Troop officers will be held on Saturday.

Council LOE staff members will be joining us for lunch on Saturday.
